

Sat., March 24, 2018

Location:

Saints Philip & James
Catholic Church
2801 N. Charles St.
Baltimore, MD 21218

This activity is open to physicians, healthcare professionals, patients, families, caregivers, and the interested public.

There is no cost to attend; however, donations gratefully accepted. (Suggested amount $10)

RSVP* requested by March 19th:

Contact Christine at info@bg-cma.org

* For those interested/eligible for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit, please provide name, credentials (e.g. MD, NP, PA), and contact information.
See attached CME flyer for details.

Pain Medicine and Palliative Care as an Alternative to Physician-Assisted Suicide in End-of-Life Cancer Care

Can we offer more to our patients at the end of their lives?

Presenter:

Michael A. Erdek, MD

Associate Professor, Johns Hopkins Univ. School of Medicine, Department of Anesthesiology and Critical Care Medicine, Division of Pain Medicine, and Department of Oncology

Adjunct Associate Professor, Berman Institute of Bioethics

Schedule:

- 8:00 AM Mass, followed by light refreshments & fellowship in parish hall
- 9:30 AM BG-CMA Membership meeting (open to all attendees)
- 10:00 AM Speaker presentation

Sponsor:

Baltimore Guild of the Catholic Medical Association

CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION
St. Agnes Healthcare, Inc.

Activity sponsored by
Baltimore Guild—Catholic Medical Association
(BG-CMA)

Topic: Pain Medicine and Palliative Care as an Alternative to Physician-Assisted Suicide in End-of-Life Cancer Care

Speaker: Michael A. Erdek, MD
Associate Professor, Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine

Date: Saturday, March 24, 2018, 10:00AM

Location: Saints Philip and James Church/Parish Hall
2801 N. Charles St., Baltimore, MD 21218

After participating in this course, the Physician should be able to:

1. Understand the differences between physician-assisted suicide and palliative sedation
2. Understand some of the inherent problematic aspects of physician-assisted suicide
3. Understand some of the modalities of the discipline of Pain Medicine which are available as alternatives in end-of-life cancer care.

CME Accreditation:

St. Agnes Healthcare, Inc. is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

CME Designation:

St. Agnes Healthcare, Inc. designates this live educational activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]

Presenter Disclosure:

Dr. Erdek states that he does not have relevant financial relationships with commercial interests. However, he will be discussing off label use of products and or devices. This information is on file with the BG-CMA.

Planner Disclosure:

The planners of this activity state that they do not have relevant financial relationships with commercial interests and will not be discussing “off-label” uses of products or devices. This information is on file with the BG-CMA.